

Sherry Romska

This will not be good for this community as it's an elderly community. I have allergies as well as diabetes. Not to mention there's a school right behind us the small children. It will cause breathing issues for everybody.