

Jennifer Giesbrecht

With increased growth and strain on water systems it is imperative that leaking wells be plugged to protect the water systems including aquifers and wells that supply populations across the state. Please address this and free up funding to do this work.