

Greg Bolton

Why on earth would we allow a for profit company to pollute our land with waste water!!!! They want the money from production of natural resources and part of that comes with the responsibility to picking up your trash. I am not allowed to throw trash outside of my car, why should we allow a companies to do the same thing with potentially toxic chemicals?