

J. C.

I am for resiliency requirements for new operators but not current operators. I am against lowering the standard for the requirement of a High School Diploma or an Equivalent for Class D operators. Also I am against fingerprinting for occupational licensing.