

Virgil Williford

Ethics training should not be a required to receive or renew a license. Everyone is different and opinions on ethics are as diverse as the people on earth. There is no need for more classes and time to achieve our licensing!