

Roger Cowan

Ethics training as proposed should be dual CEU credits and count towards both water and wastewater. It is an unfair burden to both license holders time and money to require them to take the same exact class twice in license period.