

Terry Barber

I do not support this requirement. The TCEQ is a regulatory agency, not an ethics committee. The staff at TCEQ is very good at what they do, but none of them are qualified to teach ethics, let alone decide what should be taught in an ethics course. This petition is being filed as an attempt to solve a larger ongoing issue with bad actors not following the rules, which should be solved by stricter enforcement of the rules.