

John Prince

I am vehemently opposed to adding to the continuing education requirement for any TCEQ license. To be honest, this appears to be another money grab by CE providers. It's a terrible idea and yet another government burden on small business.