

Anonymous Anonymous

From an electronics recycler, it would be helpful to clarify what qualifies as a Battery Energy Storage system. The inclusion of "battery cells" can be interpreted as anyone that handles any kind of battery needing to adhere to the components of this bill. That is confusing because the rest of the bill seems to be targeted at utility-scale renewable decommissioning.