

Concerned Citizen

How can an air quality permit even be considered for any mining operation when it comes to light that there are no particulate monitoring stations in Burnet County with all the existing mining operations on Hwy 281 between the Cities of Burnet and Marble Falls ?

Best practices for mining operations should require air monitoring data history.

Best practices should also consider proximity to State Parks, Children's Camps, and Fish Hatcheries.