

Ken Keschinger

Not sure if this falls under the TCEQ, but what about taking into consideration the blast that the quarries make where homes are near by and potential damage that is / could occur.
Not to mention the diminished quality of life due to on going blasting.