

david farrell

Our house flooded in Harvey with 4.5 feet of water. Laws need to be changed that allows sand mining upstream. Currently miners profit from selling sand but taxpayers must pay for cleanup of sites and dredging from sediment allowed to flow to Lake Houston.

I voted for bond to pay for repairs but never expected sand miners would be allowed t free ride on the taxpayer. Make this stop.