

Kelly Howell

Please consider the use of water for these operations and how it will affect the water level of all of our wells in Bandera County. It could cause many hardships for the residents whose wells might be contaminated or go dry because of the extra water needed by these businesses.