

Keenia Shinagawa

Please don't build this mine. Water is precious and we live in the desert. Water and a thriving healthy community is more important than making more money. Isn't money supposed to be a tool to improve our lives? So why are we harming nature and making our lives worse for the sake of money?