

David Dube

Arizona is in an extended drought. One good year of rain/snow does nothing to reverse this trend toward a dryer, warmer climate. The Hermosa mining project will devastate the water table that feeds springs and people. This mine should be rejected. Thank you.