

Gerald Lavallee

I support all the input Pima County has provided on their March 14 letter to ADEQ. Additionally, we heard about a bond being required when the inevitable impacts occur down the road. Whatever the current bond amount is it surely inadequate and should be doubled to encourage compliance and best engineering practices.