

Michael Barland

I applaud Hudbay's commitment to transparency and public engagement throughout the development of the Copper World project. Their ongoing community outreach efforts, comprehensive information-sharing initiatives, and willingness to address concerns head-on have fostered trust and understanding. ADEQ granting the permit signals a recognition of the importance of public engagement in responsible development and strengthens the bond between the project and the community.

Sincerely,

Michael Barland
1109 N Rhone Cir
Payson, AZ 85541
mrbartland@gmail.com