

Scott Hagen

As a resident of Arizona who cares deeply about both our community and the environment, I see the Copper World project as a beacon of hope. It promises to bring economic prosperity while respecting and protecting our natural resources. I believe this project can set a new standard for responsible mining and urge ADEQ to grant the Aquifer Protection Permit.

Sincerely,

Scott Hagen
5504 W Redfield Rd
Glendale, AZ 85306
s.hagen1953@cox.net