

Carolyn Leigh

I oppose Hubday's request for a Class II permit. The mine's location near Green Valley, plus watersheds, including the Santa Cruz River, additional areas protected by both AZ and the US government, require the higher Class I level. Air pollution can easily carry south to Nogales and north to the Tucson basin depending on wind patterns. I request that ADEQ require a Class I permit. Thank you for your consideration. Carolyn Leigh