

Mike Millius

With all of discussion related to planned uses of sulfuric acids, how will frequency of acid rain be monitored. I would assume this mainly comes from the pits, but there may be other sources for the acid.