

Scott Olmstead

I urge you to require a Class I permit for Copper World. This type of mine generates significant particulate pollution, which can be toxic to people and harmful to the environment.