

Cathy Christopherson

The air quality in and around Tucson is already atrocious. The existing mines in the area have devastated the ecosystems and polluted our air and water. Water which we DONOT have. The proposed mine in the Santa Rita's would be a horrendous impact to air, water and sensitive ecosystems! It would destroy the beautiful mountain I love so!
Please, stop this attack on my home land.