

Brandon Lloyd

Hudbay is requesting a Class II permit, which is not sufficient for protecting human health, considering the high level of air pollution that would be created by the mine. I believe Arizona Department of Environmental Quality (ADEQ) should require a Class I permit for Hudbay, with stricter regulations that would help protect people and the environment from air pollution.