

Nancy Phillips

I believe Arizona Department of Environmental Quality (ADEQ) should require a Class I permit for Hudbay, with stricter regulations that would help protect people and the environment from air pollution. Our local area and those surrounding will be affected by this mining and want to minimize the horrifying impact of this mine. Hudbay is requesting a Class II permit, which is not sufficient for protecting human health, considering the high level of air pollution that would be created by the mine.