

BRYAN LANE

I can't help but comment that this public hearing is scheduled in conflict with THE most consequential presidential debate in our lifetime, making it impossible for many who would like to attend both events to do so.

Did ADEQ select this date to deliberately suppress attendance by those who would be most likely to attend an comment against granting this permit? Hold attendance to a minimum?

I can't help but think so. ADEQ is taking sides. Why?