

Mary Barg

I believe Arizona Department of Environmental Quality should require a Class I permit for Hubday, with stricter regulations that would help protect people and the environment from air pollution.