

John Woerner

My view will be adversely affected; air quality is already compromised. Short-terms jobs and tax revenues don't compare with the losses from the destruction of the northern Santa Ritas. Leave some of the natural beauty in place will allow the area to develop in another direction.