

Nate Maakestad

You need to build your plant away from this community. Even smaller communities deserve to breathe clean air. Hard to believe that they allow a plant with so much harmful emissions right in the middle of this town. Find another place to build