

Heather Kelly

- CCR 6432(b)(2) allows for the Commissioner to condition a restricted materials permit with the requirement of notice prior to an agricultural use pesticide application.
- This regulation allows for the Commissioner to condition a permit with a notification process to those who would like to be notified of pesticide applications conducted by a particular grower.
- Because of this caveat already written in code, global site specific information is unnecessary at the state regulatory level.