

Feedback Received 233

Letter of nomination from nominating organization is okay but also require an additional letter / recommendation from actual 'work products' from other organizations that nominee has worked with to demonstrate results of their work.