

Feedback Received 319

What the definition of ‘urban representatives’? The smallest communities are the most affected and should be represented. DPR should reach out to people from all over California. We need to make sure that everyone have the most up to date information. It’s important that the members are involved with the communities. Since California is a large state, these meetings will be via zoom but I want to encourage in-person meetings to build relationships statewide.