

Feedback Received 252

for Membership/Scoring--We are concerned that limiting who can nominate candidates for this committee to environmental justice organizations, community groups, or other organizations or entities implementing program work may be overly restrictive. We encourage the department to expand its definition of individuals or organizations who may nominate committee members.