

James Seward

PAN-1; I am an environmental medicine physician with an extensive understanding of the health effect related to pesticides. It is imperative that our citizens know not only what is being applied to our crops but exactly where. How else can individual understand the risks to which they're being exposed and take appropriate protective action? Sincerely, James Seward MD MPP Clinical Professor of Medicine UCSF