

Natalie Buckley

PAN-1; SprayDays notifications will only be useful if residents can take appropriate action to protect themselves, and we can only do that if we know exactly WHAT is being sprayed (not limiting this to exclude ANY pesticides), WHERE the spray is coming from, and WHEN we will be at risk of pesticide exposure and drift. Please include exact field locations in notifications so that Californians can take actionable steps to ensure the safety of ourselves and our children.