

Deb Conant

PAN-1; I live near many farming fields that spray. I would like notification the day before spraying so I can have my windows closed and animals indoors. I have already lost a pet to lymphoma which is associated with glyphosate. I believe pesticides should be band, but notifications should be a bare minimum.