

Judith Arroyo

Sodium Hypochlorite (antimicrobial) is a pesticide, widely available to all consumers in California and based on my field of work the most pervasive cause of childhood exposure particularly to non-English homes. If we are indeed Evaluating Risk X Exposure, then due to the amount of exposure, this is a real priority to prevent accidental poisoning in California.