

Eric Schroeder

Exempting grocery stores and restaurants from the ban will result in thousands of new bait locations and greatly reduce the effectiveness of the ban. This is a clear violation of California law's language instructing CDPR to reduce threats to non-target wildlife before loosening AR restrictions.