

Liam M

The proposed mitigations on restrictions of anticoagulant rodenticides are unacceptable. California ABs 1788, 2552, and 1322 are clear in their protections for native wildlife. The deadly unintended consequences of these poisons are well-documented and they were restricted for a reason. Going backwards should not be an option.