

Marlene Mills

We must stop using anticoagulant rodenticides. The number of other animals that die because they eat rodents containing the anticoagulant rodenticides is very high and entirely unneeded. These are innocent animals that are being killed and we should take the needed steps to end it entirely.