

Anonymous Anonymous

I am shocked that the State of California would take such a harmful step which would endanger our public health and that of our pets and wildlife which are so important to our future. Please reconsider and shame on those who put profit, other gains and status ahead of a more toxic free, conservation oriented approach.