

Lacey Levitt

As a California resident, I support a total ban on anticoagulant rodenticides. I oppose any changes to regulations that would give exemptions on the use of rodenticides; protections gained through legislation in 2020 through 2024 must be retained. Rodenticides, kill, non-target animals, such as foxes, bobcats, owls and mountain lions. Our state should not be reliant on such cruel poisons.