

Waqar Qureshi

I support this proposed rule and endorse the intent because it strengthens monitoring, requires faster response to problems and requires better collection of methane from landfills.

I would challenge CARB to require greater transparency, more stringent monitoring, and faster response times than currently proposed in this new rule.