

- Another gas tax hike will crush affordability for working families already struggling with high costs, pushing us toward economic collapse under excessive taxation.
- CARB, stop the endless tax increases! Excessive taxation on gas makes life unaffordable and risks statewide economic collapse for businesses and residents.
- No more gas tax hikes—affordability is at stake! Excessive taxes are burdening Californians, leading us straight to economic collapse and hardship.
- California's current taxes on gas are way too expensive; they need to be cut. The most affordable states are around $3.00 vs. California's $4.60.