

Lucille Freer

Pause the proposed amendment to the regulation for mandatory reporting of green house gas emissions. This new proposal will raise gas prices and electricity bills. You are killing Californians with your rules. We can't live with these constant price increases. You are not even elected official. You are just appointed friends of politicians. You should all be ashamed of yourselves. Hardworking Californians are suffering because of you.