

Erik Cruz

Stop adding more regulations to gas and oil! Whether you like it or not we are reliant on gas. A lot of Californians can't make the switch to electric cars. You see what regulations does to us. It just makes everything more expensive. I don't know how you can't see it. For the party that claims you are for working class people you sure do make it hard for us to live in that state controlled by democrats