

Jeff Christensen

Regarding the California air resource board, adding more fees or taxes to the gas in California is unacceptable and should not be done. Many families are already hurting. I just paid over four dollars a gallon yesterday and prices for groceries have gone up again. This is unsustainable for many families in California. Prices need to be brought down. Thank you.