

Arturo Garcia

Please stop this regulations on refineries, you all are making it impossible for them to operate, and it's costing us more at the pumps. Refineries are bailing out because of all of this regulations and fines you impose on them. This will cripple California's economy