

Joshua Grenrock

I am opposed to these amendments which will raise the already ridiculously high price of gasoline in California add to the burden of working families trying to make ends meet while doing nothing to actually have an impact on the climate.