

Jennifer Landrum

I was born and raised in California and I would love to stay here. We are trying to stay in California but this state is really making it difficult for the working people in this state. We are at our limit and can't afford to keep getting taxed more and more. Enough is enough!