

norman lawson

I oppose new regulations that would increase costs of gas and other utilities. There is a reason that California has the highest costs of any state. Don't ignore the unintended cause of pollution caused by importing gas from other counties and areas. This does not "save" emissions by getting product from elsewhere. The contaminants travel world-wide.